GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Sts. Peter And Paul, Apostles

Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

— Father John Muir

Do I really have a Guardian Angel?

Nine things you should know

- 1) Angels have always existed from the instant that God chose to create them. Angels are not created because we are born.
- 2) God made an angelic hierarchy, but only some of them are Guardian Angels. When a child is born, one of these angels is chosen to stand by only one person from our beginning to death.
- 3) We all have one permanent Angel, and only one, probably forever? The Scriptures are full of references and quotations.
- 4) We have only one. We cannot sell it or share it with anyone else.
- 5) We cannot try to control our Angel and expect some result. It is very good to talk to your Angel along with your prayers. Your Angel loves you much, much more than you can love your Angel.
- 6) Our Angel will never abandon us, no matter what! However, every time we sin, your Angel will suffer and cry (if possible).
- 7) Our Angel is not the spirit of a dead person. And it can never be a member of the family.
- 8) A human person can never become an Angel... ever.
- 9) Our Angel will fight against evil with all his strength to protect you. Our Angel is a warrior, a strong and courageous fighter who cares for us both day and night... from birth until death.

Your Guardian Angel has basically two jobs, and that is to keep us from evil, and to get us into Heaven!

I am so excited to spend years and years talking to my Guardian Angel. Make your Guardian Angel your best friend!

Many Blessings, Dcn. Denny

AED TRAINING – Mark Your Calendar

As you may (or may not) know, St. Patrick and St. Anne churches each have an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) for use in the event of a cardiac event. However, many who make use of our facilities have no idea where it is or how to use it if needed.

To help bridge this gap, Nikki Brinker, BSN, RN, will be offering training sessions later this summer so that we can be ready to act in the event of a cardiac episode on our premises.

Two sessions will be offered for anyone from St. Anne or St. Patrick parishes; hopefully one will work for you!

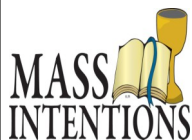

Thursday July 31st at 2 pm

OR

Tuesday Aug 12 in the evening at 6:30 in the Houdek Hall

While anyone is welcome to attend, we strongly encourage all Ministers of Hospitality and anyone who is in our facilities on a regular basis.

If you have any questions regarding this opportunity, please call Michele at St. Patrick Church – 712-642-2611.

Remember your loved one or celebrate a Birthday or Anniversary with a Mass. St. Anne and St. Patrick have openings. Contact your parish office to schedule a date.

The St. Patrick/St. Anne PrayerNet is an email group established many years ago to request others to pray for us under special circumstances – illness, injury, death, or any other situation where extra prayers are needed.

We are currently in the process of updating our prayernet contact information.

Please contact either office (St Patrick, 712-642-2611 or St. Anne, 712-644-2520) if:

- You are currently signed-up and want to REMAIN on the list
- You are currently signed-up and want to CHANGE your email address
- You are currently signed-up and want to be REMOVED from the list
- You are NOT currently signed-up, but want to be ADDED to the list

Always, remember, prayer is not the least we can do, it is the MOST we can do!

Our parish communities extend prayerful sympathy to the families of Richard Bendgen and Ruth Barker, for their loss.

May they rest in peace.

The First Fridays Devotion, also known as the Nine First Fridays Devotion, originated from the visions and revelations experienced by St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in the 17th century. Specifically, these visions occurred in Paray-le-Monial, France, where Jesus Christ appeared to her and revealed His Sacred Heart, emphasizing the need for devotion and reparation for the sins and ingratitude directed towards it. The First Fridays Devotion is simple, but not easy: go to Mass and receive communion every first Friday of the month for nine consecutive months with the intention of honoring the Sacred Heart and making reparation for sins. You can begin your devotion this Friday, July 4th — 9:00 am at St. Anne.

FROM POPE FRANCIS' DILEXIT NOS, PARAGRAPH 84:

The promotion of Eucharistic communion on the first Friday of each month, for example, sent a powerful message at a time when many people had stopped receiving communion because they were no longer confident of God's mercy and forgiveness and regarded communion as a kind of reward for the perfect.
